"Back in the Swim" For PTA and Teachers of Evelyn Carr

The faculty of Evelyn Carr school was "Back in the Swim"—literally and figuratively, as the PTA board members entertained the staff at a pool-side luncheon and swim at the home of Mrs. Jack Lattin, 16830 Thornburgh Ave.

Members of the board greeted the teachers as they arrived and presented them with ceramic name-tags in the shape of red apples, designed and created by Mrs. J. R. Allison. The same theme was carried out in the place cards. Shiny red apples were used with a novel name card attached.

In The Pool

While many teachers were enjoying a swim in the pool, luncheon chairman Mrs. Albert Carr, and her committee members Mmes. Merle Love, Jack Lattin, and Philip Brooks, arranged the lunch.

PTA president Mrs. J. R. Allison greeted all teachers, and introduced her board for the year, and the luncheon committee. Richard Welte, principal, spoke briefly and introduced the new teachers to Carr school.

Assisting the committee as hostesses were Mmes. Earl Struble, Robert Heyms, Carl Johnson, C. R. Ross, Norman Wilson and J. Kinda.
